Zone Defence	The no-zone rule applies for the Under 10, Under 12 & Under 14 Junior Competitions. In the interest of better player development, coaches should ensure defences are only those which incorporate man to man principles. Any defence in the half court which does not incorporate normal man to man defensive principles. Trapping defences which rotate back to man-to-man defensive principles are acceptable. Violation of the "no zone" rule will generally fall within one of the following categories: One or more players are not in an acceptable man to man defensive position in relation to the player they are guarding and the player with the ball. A cutter moved all the way through the key and was not defended using acceptable man to man defensive techniques (e.g., bumped, switched, followed). Following a trapping or help and recover situation the team make no attempt to re-establish man to man defensive positioning. Teams Zone press and did not assume man to man defensive positioning once the ball was into the quarter court.
Technical Foul Juniors only	Any technical foul shall result in the player being substituted from the game and sitting five minutes of playing time on the Team Bench, irrespective of score, number of players on the court or remaining time in the game.
